Welcome Home! This beautiful Southern farmhouse is tucked away on a generous 1.67-acre lot at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac in a peaceful, gated community--where life slows down and front porch sittin' is a way of life. Surrounded by serene woodlands, this property offers privacy, tranquility, and all the comforts of country living with a touch of elegance. Start your mornings with a tall glass of sweet tea on the wrap-around front porch while the birds sing you awake--this is your own little slice of Heaven, right here in the heart of the South. Inside, you'll find rich hardwood floors throughout the main living areas, adding warmth and timeless charm. The home features four spacious bedrooms, including a downstairs mother-in-law suite that is fully wheelchair accessible, making it ideal for guests or multigenerational living. There's also a dedicated home office, a cozy family room perfect for gathering, and a large, open-concept kitchen and dining area that's ready to host everything from holiday feasts to Sunday suppers. Located at the end of a cul-de-sac, this home offers extra peace and safety perfect for kids playing, evening strolls, or simply enjoying the quiet. Come on in, kick off your boots, and stay a while. This Southern gem isn't just a house it's home, and it's ready to welcome you.*Please note, owner is elderly and repairs will be
