Welcome to 137 River Wind Way, a distinguished Charleston Single-style residence featuring double front porches in the Azalea Ridge neighborhood of Summers Corner. This award-winning master-planned community in the Low Country offers thoughtfully designed neighborhoods situated around numerous parks, with convenient access by golf cart to Buffalo Lake (95 acres), a lakeside pavilion, swimming pool, playgrounds, bark park, extensive trails, and The Corner House Cafe--Summers Corner's main hub for coffee, outdoor markets, and events. Residents will soon have the option to join The Club at Summers Corner, currently under construction and just a short walk from this home. Planned features include several expansive pools with zones for children and adults, aquatic play structures, a poolside bar, water slides, and cabanas. The property also provides easy access to downtown historic Summerville and Charleston, offering opportunities to explore local shops, historic sites, and parks. The home's double-front porches offer beautiful sunset views and a tranquil place to unwind. Step inside to the well-designed Ashley Floor Plan with five bedrooms and three full bathrooms. The inviting foyer opens to an in-home office or a downstairs bedroom to the right and a large walk-in closet and full bathroom across the hall. The rear of the home showcases a
