This stunning Georgian style home offers an exceptional blend of elegance, functionality and comfortable living. Located in the picturesque neighborhood of Stono Ferry, this beautiful property overlooks a serene pond and the 18th island green of the award-winning Links at Stono Ferry, providing exceptional views year-round. Thoughtfully designed and graciously appointed, you will appreciate every detail of this home. Front steps adorned with Fig ivy lead you to a center portico with stately columns, gas lanterns and haint blue ceiling. Grand double entry doors welcome you to a residence that perfectly balances sophisticated design and Southern charm. Just off the foyer you will find the formal dining room and a study, each with gas fireplace. Cypress hardwood floors, coffered and floating tray ceilings, wainscoting, and dentil molding, add architectural distinction. The heart of the home is the gourmet kitchen that opens to the family room and breakfast area. Custom cabinetry, granite countertops, and a large center island make it perfect for culinary enthusiasts and entertaining. Appliances include a Sub-Zero refrigerator, Wolf range, wine refrigerator, microwave oven and dishwasher. Also on the first level are the powder room and laundry. The screened porch and spacious back deck with gazebo extend your living and entertaining
