This charming one-story home is tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac, offering mature landscaping and exceptional privacy. Recent updates include cement plank siding, a new roof, and replaced windows. Inside, the home is a blank slate--ready for the new owner to bring their own design vision. The spacious great room features a vaulted ceiling and a striking stone fireplace (never used by the current owner). The oversized primary suite is located at the front of the home, providing plenty of space for a sitting area and separation from the other bedrooms. On the opposite side, you'll find three additional bedrooms and a full bath. Additional highlights include: Two-car garage with pull-down stairs and floored attic storage. Irrigation system for yard watering (no sprinklers) MORE... Landing Run is one entrance, so not as much traffic. Walk to Luch Beckham High School, church and shopping
