DANIEL ISLAND

$595,000

2 Bedrooms | 2.5 Bathrooms | 1,338 Sqft

Welcome to Pier View on Daniel Island -- an attractive and recently updated condominium community set in the heart of one of Charleston's most desirable communities. This well cared for first-floor unit offers outstanding convenience and features a sought-after two and a half baths not often found in other Pier View two bedroom units. From the private balcony, you can enjoy calming views of the pool with the marsh stretching out beyond it. The exterior of 135 Pier View Street underwent extensive renovation in the last few years, including a new roof, new siding, rebuilt balconies and upgraded exterior doors and windows. A building-wide assessment was issued to help cover these improvements. The seller will pay the outstanding assessment balance at closing. Residents of Pier View enjoy exclusive access to a private community pool, a beautifully landscaped courtyard, and an outdoor grilling area available only to those living in the building. Inside the unit, a large open living area provides a welcoming space that easily accommodates dining and relaxation. As the day winds down, the balcony offers the perfect setting to relax and watch the sunset over the pool and marsh. The kitchen is designed with both function and comfort in mind. An elevated bar counter creates an ideal spot for morning coffee or casual meals, while generous workspace makes
