Experience the Best of Downtown Charleston living at 14 F Street B--a Sleek, Contemporary residence crafted in 2022. This single-family home offers an elevated lifestyle and unbeatable walkability as it is nestled just steps from King Street, the coming Lowcountry Lowline, and all the shops and restaurants you love. This architecturally modern gem blends clean exterior lines with high-end interior design. Thoughtfully designed with abundant natural light, the expansive windows flood each room with sunshine while offering an inviting street presence. The chef's kitchen is equipped with top-tier appliances and premium countertops including a 12 foot island. Designer selections throughout the home include White Oak flooring, Europa cabinetry, Restoration Hardware fixtures, and custom metal handrails no detail was overlooked. Step through the oversized sliding doors from the living room onto your covered porch, perfect for outdoor dining and relaxing. Beyond the porch lies a private rear garden that is fully fenced and could become your instant access point to the Lowcountry Lowline. Upstairs, the primary suite offers a serene escape with dual closets and a spacious, spa-inspired en suite bath with dual vanity and large walk-in shower. Down the hall the laundry is conveniently placed. Two other bedrooms with a jack-and-jill bath are separate from the
