Welcome to this thoughtfully updated 3 bedroom, 2 bath home on a large corner lot in sought-after Johns Island. Renovations completed between 2023-2025 offer modern comfort while maintaining mid century charm. Move in today and add your finishing touches! The private main suite features an attached full bath, private entrance, and covered patio, making it ideal as a primary bedroom, guest suite, or mother-in-law space. This area has previously been utilized as a short-term rental by owners. The front room currently used as a home office offers additional flexibility but can be used as a bedroom or flex space allowing for a variety of uses to suit individual needs. The additional 2 bedrooms provide comfortable accommodations for family or guests. A rare corner-lot setup with dual driveway access from Raina Street and Berryhill makes this property ideal for RVs, boats, and all your Lowcountry toys. A small storage shed and movable fencing convey, offering flexibility to customize the space to fit your needs. No HOA! The home is pre-wired with Ethernet/CAT6 cabling throughout, providing the option for hard-wired internet connectivity if desired. The home is priced to sell. Convenient Johns Island location with room to add value, a great opportunity for homeowners or investors alike.
