Welcome to 142 Moncks Corner Road in Eutawville, an adorable and affordable manufactured home offering a cozy retreat just blocks from the shores of Lake Marion. This charming 2-bedroom, 1-bath home presents a great opportunity for buyers seeking a place near the lake without the waterfront price tag. Inside, the home features a warm, inviting interior designed for comfortable everyday living. Recent updates add peace of mind and value, including a new water heater and plumbing, new well tank and pressure switch, new refrigerator, stove, and microwave, and new flooring in the kitchen. The efficient layout makes great use of space, creating a comfortable setting ideal for full-time living or a weekend getaway. Conveniently located near Lake Marion, this property allows easy access to boating, fishing, and outdoor recreation while still offering the simplicity of low-maintenance living. Whether you're a first-time buyer, downsizing, or looking for an affordable home near the lake, this is a must-see opportunity. Schedule your showing today and discover the value this Eutawville property has to offer.
