Lovely Southern-style home in White Gables nestled on nice corner lot. Double porches offer a perfect spot to relax and enjoy the neighborhood views. The downstairs hardwood flooring has been tastefully refinished, and the Sellers have ordered custom-fit floor coverings to protect during showings. Both formal rooms provide ample space to entertain family and friends...featuring crown molding and taller baseboards for an attractive finishing touch. The living room has attractive built-in cabinets perfect for storage and displaying favorite keepsakes. The eat-in kitchen has lots of cabinetry and counter top space for storage and meal preparation. The solid surface countertops and unique stone backsplash are appealing features of this kitchen as well as the large windows allowing for lots of natural light. The family room is conveniently located adjacent to the kitchen, providing a seamless flow for everyday living. There is ample space for furniture placement and a gas fireplace ideal for cozy winter evenings. Upstairs there are four bedrooms. Two of the secondary bedrooms provide direct access to the upstairs porch. They also have a unique bathroom set up...they share a tub/shower combination but each have their own vanity and toilet. The other secondary bedroom is conveniently located to another full bath. The spacious master bedroom is
