Located just one mile from the heart of Park Circle, this adorable ranch offers an incredible and rare opportunity to enjoy one of Charleston's most vibrant and quickly developing areas without the premium price tag. This home has endless potential for buyers looking to add their own personal touch. Many big ticket improvements have already been made by current owner including a kitchen update, new roof in 2024, and an encapsulated crawlspace. This home has a big back yard perfect for outdoor living, expansion or future enhancements. Conveniently located to downtown Charleston and major highways allowing for easy commutes. Whether you are an investor, first time home buyer, or someone looking to get into the Park Circle area affordably, this home presents a great value opportunity!
