There's something special about a classic brick home on a quiet street -- the kind built with care, designed to last, and filled with stories waiting to continue. Welcome to 319 E. Hampton Street in Elloree. A traditional brick walkway leads to the inviting front porch, where mornings begin with coffee and evenings wind down in the shade. The solid brick construction reflects the craftsmanship of a bygone era -- quality you can see and feel the moment you arrive. Inside, natural light fills the formal living room, highlighting beautiful wood floors and a cozy fireplace that invites gathering, conversation, and memory-making. The separate formal dining room is ready for holiday meals, Sunday dinners, and celebrations both big and small. The kitchen features crisp white cabinetry, an eat-in breakfast area, and an open flow into the spacious family room -- creating the perfect setting for everyday living and entertaining. Large windows allow the home to feel bright, open, and welcoming. The generously sized primary suite offers space to truly unwind, complete with a private bath and walk-in closet. Three additional bedrooms and three additional bathrooms provide flexibility for guests, home office space, hobbies, or multi-generational living. Outside, the spacious backyard offers room to garden, play, entertain, or simply enjoy the peaceful pace of small-town living. The
