Wind your way down Rivertowne Parkway, through flowering trees and Spanish moss, to the exclusive and highly desired enclave of homes on Willbrook Ln. Perched directly across from the Wando River, this impressive custom residence embodies true Lowcountry living. Greeted by a classic southern front porch, aglow with the soft light of gas lanterns, you'll be drawn into a home where no detail was left unattended. Custom details abound throughout the main living level; hand scraped hardwood floors and abundant millwork including multi-piece crown molding and raised panel wainscotting plus much more. This home is a perfect marriage of built-for-entertaining and perfect for everyday living. At the heart is a fully renovated, stunningly gorgeous custom kitchen featuring beautiful walnut cabinets, 2.5 quartz countertops, a huge center island complete with 360 degree storage including a built-in microwave drawer, cabinets with interior electrical outlets so that small appliances stay hidden, yet easy to use, and a large apron front farmhouse sink. A five burner cooktop is complimented by a custom vent hood and quartz wall backsplash with pot-filler faucet. Bosch double ovens with side-hinged doors and a walk-in pantry complete the cook's area of the kitchen. Truly the heart of the home, there is a cozy keeping room adjacent the kitchen where you
