Tucked beneath a canopy of oaks, palms, and pines on a private 1.23-acre homesite along the Dunes West golf course, this 4,200-square-foot residence at 1779 Shell Ring Circle offers that rare blend of estate-sized privacy and refined Lowcountry living. Located in Wagner Point--widely regarded as the premier neighborhood within the gated Dunes West community in Mount Pleasant--this home enjoys one of the most coveted settings in the entire neighborhood. A long, gracious driveway leads to a welcoming front porch framed by classic Southern architecture. Inside, a soaring two-story foyer and striking curved staircase create an immediate sense of arrival. Just off the entry, a versatile front room--currently home to a grand piano--offers the perfect setting for a home office, music room, or refined sitting room. Generous formal living and dining spaces beyond provide flexibility for entertaining or gathering with family and friends. Spanning approximately 4,200 square feet, the home offers five bedrooms and three and a half baths, thoughtfully arranged for both everyday living and gracious hosting. Since its last purchase, the current owners have made significant and tasteful upgrades that elevate the home to another level. The kitchen has been completely renovated and now features elegant Italian marble countertops, a deluxe built-in Sub-Zero
