Nestled within the prestigious gated community of Dunes West, this stately Lowcountry residence captures the very essence of Charleston living. Gracefully positioned on a meticulously landscaped 1.01-acre homesite, the property overlooks the winding marshes of Wagner Creek--offering rare privacy, sweeping vistas, and the timeless beauty of the Lowcountry's natural landscape. A grand two-story foyer welcomes you with soaring ceilings and an immediate, breathtaking sightline through the Great Room to a wall of floor-to-ceiling windows, where the ever-changing marsh serves as a living work of art. Sunlight pours into the home, illuminating the rich hardwood floors and creating an atmosphere of warmth and understated elegance. Flanking the foyer, a refined formal dining room showcases an exquisite crystal chandelier, while an elegant Sitting room offers a quiet retreat--both enhanced by French doors that open to the manicured front lawn, blending indoor and outdoor living in classic Southern style. At the heart of the home, the Great Room is both inviting and impressive, featuring expansive windows, custom built-ins, and a striking double-sided fireplace with a beautifully crafted mantel--perfect for gathering while enjoying the serene views of nature. The gourmet kitchen is thoughtfully designed for both everyday living and effortless
