Nestled in the heart of Sandhurst--one of West Ashley's most beloved and established neighborhoods--this classic brick ranch offers timeless charm, generous space, and an unbeatable location just minutes from downtown Charleston and area beaches. Situated on a .33-acre lot shaded by majestic oak trees, the setting is both private and picturesque. Step inside to a welcoming entryway featuring distinctive stone flooring, setting the tone for the home's character and warmth. To the left, a sunken living room adds architectural interest, while a formal dining room provides the perfect space for gatherings. The kitchen features granite countertops, cream-colored cabinetry, and ample storage, including a large pantry. Just off the kitchen, a spacious family room is anchored by a grand gas fireplace--creating a cozy and inviting central living space. Sliding glass doors lead to a four-seasons porch overlooking the expansive, private backyard--ideal for year-round enjoyment. Down the hallway, you'll find three generously sized secondary bedrooms and a stylish hall bath with eye-catching wallpaper. The primary suite offers hardwood floors and an updated en suite bathroom complete with a zero-entry shower. Hardwood flooring also extends beneath the carpet in the bedrooms and hallway as well as in the formal living and dining rooms, offering
