Welcome Home to 492 Rowley Lane! Can't wait for you to see this gem! This Craftsman/Cottage style home is ready for you. Are you looking for an open concept home that has all of your needs for one story living with an extra bonus suite upstairs? This is it! As you walk up the path to the home you will see the current owner's green thumb at work. She added landscaping around the entire home. When spring really gets going you will see it come into full bloom with hydrangeas, butterfly bushes, ornamental grasses galore just to name a few. As you walk in the foyer, you know you are walking into an inviting, beautifully designed home. The flex room is to the right and is a comfortable tv room and place to pull out the vinyl for some tunes. Walking into the great room you will notice a great room with perfect flow. The gas fireplace is one the focal pieces of the room and grounds the living space. The gourmet kitchen is a chef's dream with every culinary need perfectly placed. Stainless steel appliances, a gas range, hooded vent and quartz countertops are just a few things that make this kitchen special. The pantry is on the right of the kitchen for all your countertop appliances and groceries. On the left is one of the entries to the laundry room (more on that later). The dining space leads to the back porch and has lots of natural light. Dining for your
