Nestled on a quiet cul-de-sac just steps from Pitt Street Bridge, this turnkey Old Village home offers one of the most compelling combinations of price, location, and quality in all of Mount Pleasant. Recently reimaged with a brand new kitchen and thoughtfully redesigned floorplan, 930 Richter Way features 4 bedrooms, 3.5 baths, and approximately 2,200 square feet of beautifully updated living space--blending modern functionality with timeless Old Village charm. Entering through the large front porch and wooden double doors, you're welcomed into a bright, open-concept living space centered around the newly renovated kitchen. Designed with both everyday living and entertaining in mind, the kitchen features a new AGA induction oven, top-of-the-line stainless appliances, a separate beverage center, drawer fridge, and an expansive island, all seamlessly connected to the main living and dining areas. The main floor is an entertainer's dream--whether serving drinks from the wine bar, gathering around the oversized island, or flowing effortlessly onto multiple porches for indoor-outdoor living. A central dining area offers a cozy yet elevated space for meals, while the adjacent living room is anchored by a beautifully updated wood-burning fireplace. Tucked away on the main level, the spacious primary suite offers room for a king bed and
