Wonderful Golf Course Living in Rivertowne Country Club Overlooking the 11th fairway of Charleston's only Arnold Palmer signature golf course, this beautiful home combines timeless Lowcountry charm with modern comfort. Thoughtfully designed for both everyday living and entertaining, it offers sweeping views of the course and surrounding nature from the sunroom and new spacious deck. Inside, the home features a flowing layout centered around a spacious family room with a gas fireplace and custom built-ins. A butler's pantry connects seamlessly to the living spaces and separate dining room, while the open foyer staircase adds architectural character and convenience. On the first floor, a private office with French doors can easily serve as an additional bedroom. Upstairs, the oversized FROG offers endless flexibility perfect as a media room, guest suite, or private retreat connected by a Jack-and-Jill bath to the guest bedroom and an addition staircase to the first floor. The primary suite is a sanctuary of its own, with a whirlpool tub, dual vanities, walk in closet and separate shower. Recent upgrades in addition to the new deck (2024) include a new roof (2024), high-capacity Carrier HVAC (2021), new flooring (2025), and a freshly painted interior (2025), ensuring peace of mind and a move-in-ready experience.
