This home is a MUST SEE. From the front it looks like a traditional solid brick home but upon entering you immediately understand this is a home with so much more. Formal living room, family room, dedicated dining room, large kitchen with plenty of storage, great functionality. Not to mention the kitchen is just plain pretty. The laundry is so well organized that it is no longer a chore, built in drying rack, custom folding shelves. The primary suite is more than just a bedroom. You enter into the first room of the suite which can be an office, a work out room, a nursery or anything you can dream up. Massive closet and plenty of storage. The primary bedroom is also oversized. The primary bathroom is pure luxury. Heated towel rack, soaker tub, large shower all secluded to total privacy. The other wing of the home has two very large bedroom. They can hold a king bed, dresser and more. The bedrooms also boast large closets. The full bathroom on that wing has a lovely tub shower combination very open feel with plenty of room to move around. When you step into the backyard more surprises await you. The large lot with a huge patio space, night lighting around the deck. The perfect spot to extend your entertaining. There is still plenty of yard for a ball to be kicked around. Guests to sit around the firepit or host a large gathering. The shed will remain in place and
