Discover this meticulously cared-for gem in The Refuge at Ravenel, also known as "Ravenel's Secret Subdivision." Built in 2017, this home sits on a spacious 1.21-acre lot with exclusive access to a resident green area and its ponds. The heart of the home is a stunning kitchen featuring crisp white cabinetry with under-cabinet lighting and a spacious island that seats four comfortably. The sun-drenched great room offers views of the landscaped yard, while the primary suite serves as a true retreat with a double vanity and a large walk-in shower. The flexible floor plan includes three spacious bedrooms and two full baths, with a versatile family room that easily serves as a fourth bedroom. Outdoor living is a dream, featuring a wide front porch, a large screened back porch for peaceful entertaining, and a charming fire pit area. Unique highlights include fenced garden beds and a potting pavilion to keep you out of the weather. An expanded three-car garage and large concrete apron makes for indoor and outdoor parking a breeze. The whole house generator that runs on propane will assist if the power goes out. This hidden and gated Lowcountry sanctuary offers the perfect balance of space, style, and privacy.
