Easy living and elegant single-level home, designed to showcase its beautiful Lowcountry tidal creek and marsh setting, with side vistas out to the Stono River. The home captures painting-worthy views and natural light at all times of day and embodies the best of relaxed Lowcountry living. Extensively renovated since June 2023, including a new roof, HVAC systems, tankless water heaters, wood flooring in the primary bedroom, solid wood shelving in all closets, upgraded pool equipment, security system, along with full exterior and interior painting, upgraded maritime deck, lighting, and many others. New lush front landscaping completed in February 2026, and irrigation and landscape lighting upgrades. Stono Ferry Neighborhood is a private golf course and resort amenity community. Inside, the home's thoughtful floorplan provides owner and guest privacy, with a stunning master suite area (complete with dream-size primary bathroom and full moon closet) and guest bedrooms all with private en-suite bathrooms. Relaxing suites meet ample and welcoming gathering spaces, including large family room, kitchen, living and dining rooms, centered around expansive nature, marsh, pool, and water views. Many different areas offer indoor and outdoor relaxing and entertaining options for owner, friends, and family. Truly must see to appreciate
