128 Tidewater Way invites you into a lifestyle of comfort, convenience, and elevated Lowcountry living. This newly built home offers nearly 2,800 square feet of thoughtfully designed space, beginning with a first-floor primary suite that gives you privacy and ease every day. The open-concept main level feels bright and welcoming, with a gourmet kitchen perfect for cooking, gathering, and entertaining. Upstairs, you'll find a spacious loft, two well-appointed bedrooms connected by a Jack-and-Jill style bathroom, and an additional private suite perfect for guests seeking comfort and privacy. A laundry room and a separate office complete the thoughtfully designed second floor, creating flexible spaces that easily adapt to the needs of family life, remote work, or long-term visitors. Enjoy quiet mornings or relaxed evenings on the screened porch overlooking the backyard and take advantage of the expansive drive-under garage with room for multiple vehicles, storage, or hobbies. Located in the desirable Landings at Sweetwater community--just minutes from the Wando River and zoned for top-rated Philip Simmons schools--this home offers the blend of luxury, practicality, and modern design today's buyers are looking for. Living in Landings at Sweetwater means enjoying a community designed for both relaxation and connection. Residents
