Welcome home to 105 Dove Lane, a meticulously maintained residence in the heart of Summerville that balances classic comfort with modern outdoor living. This charming property features three spacious bedrooms, including a sought-after primary suite conveniently located on the first floor. The interior layout is thoughtfully designed for both daily life and formal entertaining, offering a dedicated dining room and a versatile flex space that serves beautifully as a home office or formal living area. At the heart of the home, the gorgeous kitchen flows seamlessly into a cozy den anchored by a warm fireplace, creating an inviting atmosphere. The unfinished room over the garage offers excellent storage and the potential to be finished as a bonus room, home office, or additional living space. The living space extends effortlessly to the outdoors where the current owners have created a true sanctuary. Just off the den, an amazing screened porch provides a peaceful transition to a backyard retreat designed for relaxation and hosting. This exterior oasis comes complete with a dedicated cooking deck for summer barbecues and a sparkling pool, all set within a lush and private landscape. Practicality meets style with a two-car attached garage and an overall level of care that ensures this home is move-in ready. This is a rare opportunity to own a well-loved property
