Welcome to 673 Highwood Circle on James Island, ideally situated between historic downtown Charleston and the sandy shores of Folly Beach. Convenient access via the James Island Connector makes commuting to downtown quick and easy. Built in 1966, this charming two-story brick home offers timeless character with beautiful wood floors throughout the main level. The open floor plan flows seamlessly into the eat-in kitchen, creating a comfortable space for everyday living and entertaining. A separate dining room provides flexibility and could also serve as an additional living area or home office. A sunroom at the rear of the home has been converted into an additional bedroom, offering extra space for guests or family. Outside, mature landscaping enhances the property's curb appeal, while a patio just off the breakfast area provides a great spot for outdoor relaxation. Additional features include a one-car garage, an extra-wide driveway for added parking, and ample street parking.
