3 Bedrooms | 1 Bathroom | 1,200 Sqft

Move-in ready and fully renovated including a NEW ROOF, this charming 3-bedroom home in Summerville offers the rare combination of NO HOA, a large, fenced yard, and a detached powered workshop--all tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac just minutes from downtown Summerville and an easy drive to Charleston. Located at 103 Tweed Court, this updated single-story home is ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, investors, or anyone searching for a low-maintenance home with space to park a boat, trailer, or recreational vehicles. The .21-acre lot features double-gate backyard access, making it easy to store outdoor toys, work vehicles, or equipment without HOA restrictions. Inside, the bright open living room features soaring vaulted ceilings, beadboard accents, modern fixtures, and a cozy wood-burning fireplace that creates a warm focal point for everyday living and entertaining. Luxury vinyl plank flooring runs throughout the main living areas and bedrooms--offering durability, style, and zero carpet. The renovated eat-in kitchen includes white cabinetry, classic countertops, subway tile backsplash, stainless sink, sleek appliances, and additional built-in storage that adds both charm and functionality. A flexible bonus space with glass-front cabinetry works perfectly as a coffee bar, pantry extension, mudroom, home office nook, or drop
