Experience elevated Lowcountry living in this meticulously maintained home in Cordgrass Landing, a boutique marsh-front community offering a Johns Island address with exceptional West Ashley convenience. Only three years old and built with durable Hardie Plank siding, this home blends timeless Charleston-coastal charm with modern comfort. The open-concept main level features LVP flooring throughout and flows seamlessly to the covered porch, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. The large private downstairs primary suite offers a spa-inspired bath with a spacious tiled walk-in shower. Set on a generous lot with green space across the street and fencing already in place on two sides, this home delivers refined coastal style, comfort, and an inviting boutique community feel. Exceptional home!
