Well-maintained home in the sought-after Majestic Oaks subsection of Seaside Plantation. Located near the beginning of a quiet cul-de-sac, this primarily single-story home offers privacy and minimal through-traffic. The attractive brick veneer front elevation provides inviting curb appeal. Inside, wood floors flow through much of the first floor, creating a warm and cohesive feel. The split-bedroom floor plan is ideal for guests or multigenerational living. Two of the three guest bedrooms, along with the guest bath, are located to the left of the foyer. To the right, you'll find access to the two-car garage, which also includes a convenient side entry door to the side yard and backyard. Next is the spacious FROG/ Flex Room that is also considered the 4th bedroom. This multi-use room can also serve as study, home office or media room. The attic access is also located in this area. The spacious family room features tall vaulted ceilings, a fireplace, and an adjoining dining area. This central living space is both functional and flexible, with ample wall space for furniture placement and decor. The generously sized master bedroom is located off the right side of the foyer and includes a large walk-in closet. The master bath offers dual vanities, a garden tub, a separate shower, and updated flooring. The kitchen is highly functional, with plenty of
