Nestled in the heart of idyllic Wadmalaw Island and surrounded by hundreds of acres of protected conservation land, this extraordinary 15-acre estate offers a rare opportunity to embrace a slower, richer way of life without sacrificing convenience. Just 30 minutes from downtown Charleston and the beaches of Kiawah, the property feels worlds away, where moss-draped live oaks and endless green pastures create a setting of remarkable beauty and tranquility. Take evening walks beneath the island's iconic oak canopy, hop in your golf cart for fresh produce at neighboring Ambrose Family Farm, or simply enjoy the peaceful rhythm of life on one of the Lowcountry's most treasured islands. Thoughtfully designed as a private family compound and completed in 2021, the estate is a celebration of indoor-outdoor living and entertaining. The stunning main residence overlooks lush Bahia grass pastures, a sparkling saltwater mineral pool, and a landscape that feels more like a private resort than a home. Accordion-style doors open the living spaces to a screened porch, creating seamless flow for gatherings large and small. Beyond the home, every corner of the property invites you to live outdoors--from the new fully screened and irrigated greenhouse to the custom-designed Argentine Santa Maria grilling pavilion and entertainment area.
