It's like stepping into the old country with all the modern conveniences of today. This exquisite home may be the closest thing to a palace you'll find on the market. Built by Shepherd construction, from the terrazzo tile entry to the mahogany paneled library, this home oozes quality, comfort, and high-end style. You'll love the walnut flooring that runs throughout downstairs. The Great room invites you in with 11-foot ceilings and triple French doors, built-ins, reclaimed ship beams in the ceiling and a stone cast fireplace. The gorgeous kitchen sits just open to the great room offering high-end appliances such as a subzero fridge and wine cooler, a Wolfe range, dual dishwashers and a warming drawer, all built into custom walnut cabinetry. A copper farm sink, an oversized kitchen island marble countertops, ample built-ins including a sweet bakers cabinet compliment and complete your kitchen while a butler's pantry provides an ice maker, sub-zero wine fridge, more storage and easy access to the front dining room suitable to hold 10-15 people. This magnificent home offers two primary suites one up and one down. The downstairs primary suite is spacious and comfortable with a fireplace and French doors leading to the terrace with a luxurious bath and his and her closets. The main laundry is conveniently located next door. The Grand primary is on
