Welcome to this charming three-bedroom home nestled in North Mount Pleasant's Lieben Park neighborhood. You can't beat this location; it's 5 minutes from Wando High School, Costco, Charleston National Golf Club, and Roper St. Francis campus. From the neighborhood, you can walk or drive a golf cart to the Gadsenville boat landing to launch your kayak or to cast a fishing rod. This home features Craftsman-style exterior finishes, including clapboard siding, tapered square columns on stone piers, Prairie-style window mullions, Craftsmans garage hardware, and exposed rafter tail finials. The attractive and tidy neighborhood also has an affordable HOA fee. Step inside to find a light and bright living space that opens to the kitchen. Hardwood floors span the entire first floor. The kitchen features granite countertops, a tile backsplash, and stainless steel Whirlpool appliances, including a brand new microwave. Moving toward the back of the home, you'll notice a breakfast room, a powder room, under stairs storage, a pantry, and access to the one-car garage, which was previously used as a home gym. Start your day on the screened-in porch drinking your morning cup of coffee and enjoying your spacious, private back yard. New screens, epoxy floors, and sun shades have been added to the porch to create an outdoor living area. Upstairs you'll find three bedrooms,
