Welcome to 213 Brailsford Road, a beautifully updated home located in the highly desirable DD2 School District of Summerville, SC. Tucked away in the quiet, established neighborhood of Quail Arbor V, this move-in ready property offers the perfect combination of modern updates, functional living space, and a convenient location. Inside, you'll find 3 bedrooms, 2 fully renovated bathrooms, and an updated kitchen featuring stylish finishes, brand new cabinets, new appliances, and quartz countertops. Luxury vinyl plank flooring runs throughout the home, providing durability and a seamless look, while fresh interior paint gives the entire home a bright and inviting feel. The spacious FROG (Finished Room Over Garage) provides valuable bonus space that is not included in the home's listed square footage, making it ideal for a home office, playroom, gym, media room, or guest retreat. The screened back porch provides plenty of additional space for entertaining and dining and the backyard features a brand new fence. Whether you're a first-time homebuyer, downsizing, or simply looking for a turnkey home in one of Summerville's most sought-after school districts, this property checks all the boxes. Enjoy the peace and privacy of an established neighborhood while remaining just minutes from shopping, dining, schools, parks, and everything
