A Place Where Generations Gather! Tucked beneath grand Live Oaks and swaying palmettos, this beautifully maintained beach walk home captures the relaxed coastal lifestyle that has drawn generations of families back year after year. Set on a generous homesite at the end of a quiet sandy road, the property offers a rare blend of privacy, shade, and open space for gathering, all just moments from the beach. Spanning 2,064 square feet, the home features 3 bedrooms and 3.5 baths designed for easy coastal living, entertaining, and extended stays at the beach. A welcoming southern-style front porch sets a relaxed tone from the moment you arrive and provides a comfortable place to unwind at the end of the day. Inside, the layout is both practical and inviting, with well-proportioned living space providing ample storage and a kitchen offering extensive cabinetry and generous workspace for cooking and gathering. The primary suite is located on the main level, offering a private retreat with a large ensuite bath featuring a soaking tub, separate shower, and walk-in closet. Upstairs, two well-sized guest bedrooms each include their own private bath and walk-in closet. A wide central hallway enhances the sense of openness and provides a comfortable separation between sleeping spaces. The appeal of the home extends well
