Charleston elegance and peaceful pond views are abundant here at 4007 Capensis Lane in beautiful and natural Poplar Grove! Charleston gas lanterns, double piazzas (porches) overlooking the tranquil pond, along with dual primary bedrooms on the 1st floor, make this coastal and customized home truly exceptional. Gorgeous natural oak hardwood flooring is found throughout most of the home with a bright and open floorplan! Soaring 10 ft ceilings with 8 ft doors on the 1st floor, along with dining area open to the den and kitchen, and a sunny "Carolina Room," a 4-season room that you can use as a sunroom or as a screened porch. White shaker cabinets, granite countertops with an enormous island, subway tile, and a 5-burner natural gas cooktop with overhead vent hood make this kitchen stylish and functional for all of your gatherings. Lower cabinets are equipped with rolling shelving with pull-out drawers for added functionality. -The first floor primary bedroom is spacious and bright, large enough for a California King bed and additional furniture. The spa-like primary bathroom offers a relaxing soaking tub, a dual vanity with granite countertop, and a roomy walk-in dual-shower-head shower with a curbless zero-entry for no steps inside with frameless glass doors. The primary walk-in closet is customized with organizers, flowing
