Enjoy NO monthly regime and lower maintenance living! Welcome to immaculate 2554 Josiah Street. Loaded with gorgeous trim work and thoughtful upgrades, this bright and inviting home features an open floor plan, three-story living, an elevator, and effortless low-maintenance living -- all on one of Daniel Island's most picturesque streets. Sited on charming Josiah Street with a serene front pond view, this home was designed to evoke a courtyard-style townhome feel -- while delivering the privacy and freedom of a single-family home. Enjoy the ease of simplified living. As you arrive, a spacious front porch with a gas lantern and a rich front door welcome you home. The first floor exemplifies open-concept living with a seamless front-to-back flow. You immediately note the stunning shiplap accent wall, hardwood floors and extensive custom trim. The bright white kitchen is a true standout, featuring chef-grade appliances, gorgeous quartz countertops, a marble backsplash, and a farmhouse sink. Just off the kitchen, the screened porch and private courtyard create a warm and wonderful outdoor oasis -- a fabulous retreat. As you head to the second floor, the rich hardwoods continue. The oversized and light-filled primary suite features private access to an upper balcony overlooking the pond and marsh views. The spa-like bath
