Welcome to Anchorage Plantation, one of Wadmalaw's most unique & breathtaking neighborhoods. Come experience a little heaven on earth, entering through private gates and traveling the 3 mile road that hugs the Bohicket River. This custom designed elevated home sits on a gorgeous 3 acre parcel. Enjoy the perfect view & calming breezes from expansive front and back porches while enjoying watching families of deer, colorful birds and stunning sunsets. Custom designed with generations in mind, this home was quality built by Wadmalaw's renowned M.R. Jackson Home Builders. As you enter you will see and feel the attention to detail and design. Coming through the solid wood front door you will find an open and bright living space. Whether you enjoy entertaining or peaceful quiet time, this floor plan is beautifully conducive. A bright and welcoming kitchen overlooks the expansive backyard and farmland behind it. This opens to a cozy living space with an exquisite floor to ceiling all brick gas fireplace. The primary bedroom and bathroom are their own delightful retreat with surrounding views and custom appointments. White oak floors run throughout the home along with custom wood shelving & framing. Upstairs enjoy a second family room/loft and three more spacious bedrooms. So much detail and thought went into the design of this home
