Welcome to 1865 Rugby Lane, a beautiful Charleston brick home full of Southern Charm, located in one of West Ashley's sought-after neighborhood. This prime location is just minutes from historic downtown Charleston, interstates, Folly Beach, Charlestowne Landing, and the new exciting Ashley Landing redevelopment. As you step inside the beautiful stone floor foyer greets you with an inviting open floor plan featuring cathedral ceilings and a stunning double-sided gas fireplace that creates a warm, welcoming atmosphere in both den and sunroom. Beadboard ceilings in the sunroom and frog. This one story home with finished room over the garage (FROG) serves as a versatile 4th bedroom or flex room with half bath, walk in closet and built in cabinets. The oversized 2 car garage with separate laundry room offers much more storage options with access to the backyard. Outside, you will find a beautifully landscaped yard and spacious new wood patio/deck, creating the perfect extension of living space for relaxing, grilling entertaining family and friends. Don't miss this exceptional opportunity to own a charming, well-maintained and loved home. This is where convenience, comfort and classic Charleston style come together.
