This is a stunning new construction home featuring an open floorplan for today's modern living with lots of natural light. This historical neighborhood is all about the lifestyle with the West Ashley bikeway directly behind the property, the Ashleyville food forest next door, and Higgins Pier and Carr-Richardson Park just a short walk away. The kitchen features upgraded shaker cabinets with soft close doors, tile backsplash, stainless appliances including a gas range, quartz countertops, and an island. It is open to the living and dining area, and for those that work at home, there is an office/multipurpose room on this floor with interior French doors. The winding stairwell to the 2nd floor stands out with the black metal balustrades. The master bedroom upstairs has a walk-in closet and features a beautiful master bath with a furniture style vanity and modern tile floor and shower and a frameless shower door. There are two other bedrooms and a guest bath with tasteful tile finishes. The whole house is luxury vinyl plank flooring. All the fixtures and finishes in the house have been hand picked with detailed thought in mind to create a nice luxury feel. The exterior is upgraded cement plank siding with a brick accent. Besides this wonderful house, living in historic Ashleyville is all about lifestyle. Right next door is the Ashleyville Food Forest. Directly behind the
