In the heart of Pinopolis sits a beautifully reimagined home where classic architecture meets designer-level sophistication. Owned and transformed by an interior decorator, this residence reflects a passion for restoring older homes into unforgettable showstoppers. Fresh Farrow & Ball paint brings depth and elegance to every room, highlighting the custom millwork, hardwood flooring throughout, and stunning herringbone-patterned hardwood in select areas that create a truly custom, high-end feel. With 4 bedrooms, 3 full baths, multiple living spaces, two kitchens, and an oversized garage, the layout offers both charm and modern functionality. The newly created primary suite feels like a boutique retreat with custom iron and glass doors, a walk-in closet, and a spa-inspired bath finished iCarrara marble, custom cabinetry, and an oversized shower with bench. A private mother-in-law suite adds flexibility with its own kitchen and full bath. The main kitchen renovation showcases soapstone countertops, Calacatta Gold marble backsplash, a custom island, built-in china cabinet, and premium fixtures. Exterior enhancements include German-smear brick, new shutters, copper lanterns, fresh landscaping, a new pump house, and a covered back porch perfect for quiet mornings. Major system upgrades include all-new plumbing, a
