Know of borrowers looking to accelerate their journey to homeownership?

Now with RezSource, buyers can purchase a home with significantly less money upfront. In fact, if they provide as little as 1% down, we'll contribute the lesser of 2% or $5,000 in closing cost and/or down payment assistance based on the appraised value or purchase price, whichever is lower.* This means you'll help borrowers get into their dream home with less funds upfront.

$300,000

3 Bedrooms | 2 Bathrooms | 1,206 Sqft

Opportunity awaits with this 3-bedroom, 2-bath ranch home in the established Windsor Hill Plantation community! Situated on a large corner lot, this home features a desirable split floor plan, an eat-in kitchen, and a sunroom just off the living room, offering additional living space with endless possibilities. Recent updates include fresh interior paint, new living room ceiling fan, new primary bathroom floor and newer hardwood flooring, providing a great head start for the next owner. While the home and yard could benefit from additional cosmetic updates, they offer tremendous potential to make the space your own. Conveniently located near shopping, dining, Charleston International Airport, Boeing, Bosch, Joint Base Charleston, and I-26, this property is ideal for first-time homebuyers looking to build equity or investors seeking their next opportunity. With a solid layout, a spacious corner lot, and an unbeatable location, this home is full of potential and ready for its next chapter. Use Seller's Preferred Lender to buy this home and possibly receive an incentive towards your closing costs or rate buydown.
