5 Bedrooms | 4.5 Bathrooms | 3,543 Sqft

Perfectly perched on a peaceful and high corner lot in one of downtown Charleston's most beloved neighborhoods, this thoughtfully restored 1940 craftsman is a rare blend of historic character and high-end modern living. With 5 bedrooms, 4.5 baths, and 3,543 square feet, 182 Gordon offers space, style, and location in equal measure. Throughout the home custom finishes include warm oak floors, hand restored original windows, custom poplar trim and solid core doors with unlacquered brass levers by Baldwin Hardware, Visual Comfort Lighting, Brizo plumbing fixtures, Thermador and Ilve appliances, and waxed brass cabinet hardware by Hendel and Hendel. Enjoy all that living in Wagener Terrace has to offer with easy access to beautiful Hampton Park, shopping and dining and historic Charleston....A deep front porch and carefully restored front door with its original hardware welcomes you home. Step into the stunning foyer with beautiful checkered marble tile floors and find your way into a flowing floorplan connected by gracefully arched doorways, original to the 1940s design. Starting in the dining room, the color drenched room is complete with picture window, dental molding and statement chandelier. The spacious living room full of natural light flows is centered on a Dimplex fireplace and leads into the showstopping kitchen.
