Tucked into the heart of West Ashley's well-established Ashley Park community, 4109 Perrine Street is a beautifully proportioned two-story townhome, offering 1,400 square feet of thoughtfully arranged living space across two levels. A cozy fireplace anchors the main living area, creating a warm, inviting gathering space, while the flow between rooms makes everyday living feel effortless. The home features two bedrooms and two-and-a-half baths, providing you with a comfortable, private space with flexibility for a home office or guest suite. Built in 2006 with durable vinyl siding, a solid pier foundation, and an efficient heat pump system, this home is move-in ready and built to last. The compact, easy-care homesite keeps outdoor maintenance to a minimum, delivering the low-maintenance, lock-and-leave lifestyle today's buyers are looking for without sacrificing a true sense of home. Set on tree-lined, sidewalk-lined streets in Ashley Park, the home offers a quiet, walkable setting just minutes from everyday conveniences -- Harris Teeter, Whole Foods, Costco, Walmart, and Starbucks are all close by, and the West Ashley Public Library is within walking distance. Enjoy the proximity to Bees Landing Recreation Center, while commuters benefit from quick access to Glenn McConnell Parkway and West Ashley Circle for an easy trip into
