3 Bedrooms | 3 Bathrooms | 2,186 Sqft

Set along a peaceful tidal creek, this three-bedroom, three-bath ranch offers a rare combination of privacy, water access, and nearly half an acre of land. The setting is truly special, with an unobstructed natural backdrop behind the property. Nothing can be built there, preserving the quiet, peaceful feel for years to come. The tidal creek provides direct access to the harbor, making it easy to enjoy boating, fishing, kayaking, and time on the water right from home. A private dock with a boat lift adds even more versatility for enjoying the waterfront. Inside, the comfortable ranch-style layout offers easy one-level living, while the converted garage provides valuable additional space that can function as a home office, playroom, studio, or flexible living area. With three bedrooms, three full baths, generous outdoor space, and a waterfront setting that feels tucked away from it all, this property offers a relaxed Lowcountry lifestyle with room to make it your own.
