First home? Downsizing? Second home in Charleston? This charming and well maintained townhome style condo offers the ideal place to call home for any stage of life. Ideally located in The Peninsula, the home's proximity to I-526, Daniel Island, and Mount Pleasant means you can be on the beach, at work or downtown in minutes. Comfort and convenience combine and offer upgrades such as hard flooring and fresh, bright paint throughout. A spacious dining area is located at the front of the home and leads to a beautifully appointed kitchen. Granite countertops, subway tile and stainless steel appliances offer a sleek, modern feel while butcher block accents soften and warm the space. A tailor made coffee bar features an arched casing and open shelves, perfect for crafting iced lattes to enjoy on the front porch. A raised bar opens directly into the living area which boasts a custom built-in wall unit complete with fireplace. Bright and airy, the living room offers access to the back patio and yard. A guest powder room completes the first floor. Upstairs, the primary bedroom boasts a walk-in closet and a gorgeously updated en-suite bath. The high-style bathroom features upgrades such as a floating vanity, antique brass fixtures and custom tiled shower. Two additional bedrooms share a full bathroom complete with tub/shower combo, providing plenty of
