A RARE OPPORTUNITY to live on a golf course on James Island! Elegance, comfort and serenity prevail throughout this gorgeous four bedroom home on the municipal golf course in the heart of James Island. With wide plank oak hardwood floors, electric fireplace, stainless steel appliances, granite countertops, custom pantry cabinets and shelves, and beautiful natural light, this home lives large and efficiently. The proximity to all of Charleston's natural beauty and amenities is what truly makes James Island the perfect location for a primary or secondary home. The shops and restaurants of Riverland Terrace are an easy five minute walk away along the newly installed sidewalks on Woodland Shores. James Island County Park is one short mile away while downtown Charleston, Folly Beach, the West Ashley Greenway, and the Country Club of Charleston are all well under ten miles from the house. The home is under termite bond and the neighborhood has no HOA. Please see the list of upgrades and furniture available for sale under Documents. Come take a peek--you will not be disappointed!
