This exceptional Daniel's Landing condominium is one of only a few residences offering this unique and highly desirable floor plan, complete with vaulted ceilings, two private porches, a fireplace, and beautiful transom windows that fill the home with natural light. Offering wonderful potential, the residence is ready for its next owner to personalize and make it their own. Whether through thoughtful updates or a more extensive renovation, the home provides an excellent opportunity to create a primary residence, second home, or investment property tailored to your own style. The galley-style kitchen features a charming breakfast area and opens seamlessly to the spacious great room, where the fireplace and access to both porches create an inviting setting for relaxing or entertaining. The thoughtfully designed main living area separates the two generous bedroom suites, providing privacy and comfort for both owners and guests. Abundant storage can be found throughout the home, including oversized walk-in closets in both bedrooms, a spacious laundry room, and an outdoor utility closet. Ideally located within walking distance of Daniel Island's shops, restaurants, grocery store, businesses, schools, parks, and Credit One Stadium, this residence offers the perfect combination of convenience and relaxed island living.
