Welcome home to the perfect combination of luxury, comfort, and privacy. Located within Daniel Island Park, this meticulously maintained and stately home features beautifully executed renovations throughout. Sited on a large picturesque lot, the serene marsh and wooded backdrop give complete privacy to the backyard pool oasis. As you arrive you immediately note the handsome raised elevation and stunning stacked porches. The warm front porch welcomes you, and features composite decking, a quintessentially Southern gas lantern and wood door entry. The two-story foyer is finished in shiplap with a statement chandelier. The white backdrop highlights the new white oak and iron railing staircase. To the left is an elegant home office with rich wall covering and privacy barn door. Newer wide-plank wood flooring opens to the expansive great room, dining, and kitchen, all under a striking coffered ceiling. The beautifully renovated chef's kitchen features white cabinetry with glass front uppers, to-ceiling tile, brass hardware, a stunning stone island with seating for four, built-in fridge, gas range top, and double wall ovens. An adjacent space features a built-in desk and locker storage. Steps away, the gorgeous butler's bar features navy cabinetry, glass-front uppers, floating oak shelves, a chevron marble backsplash, an ice maker, and a wine
