Welcome to Rice Planters Pointe, a private and well-located neighborhood in the heart of Mount Pleasant, offering convenient access to the beaches, Mount Pleasant Towne Centre, Interstate 526, downtown Charleston, and Belle Hall Shopping Center. Tucked into a peaceful setting with beautiful marsh and pond views, this established neighborhood enjoys a truly special location, bordering Charles Pinckney National Historic Site on one side and Snee Farm on the other, with a convenient walking path connecting the communities. Inside, the home welcomes you with a gracious two-story foyer, hardwood floors, and an inviting blend of traditional and thoughtfully updated spaces. The living room features a dramatic vaulted ceiling, while custom 9-foot-tall built-in bookcases and abundant cabinetry add both character and exceptional storage throughout the home. At the heart of the home is a completely redesigned designer kitchen, featuring beautiful marble backsplash, updated appliances, generous cabinetry, and a spacious walk-in pantry. The kitchen opens seamlessly to the breakfast area and large family room, creating an ideal layout for both everyday living and entertaining. Bathed in natural light from numerous windows, the family room overlooks the beautiful backyard and connects to a spacious screened porch, providing a wonderful
