Welcome to refined coastal living in Mount Pleasant's highly sought-after Charleston National community. Perfectly positioned on the fairway of a championship golf course, this home pairs sweeping views with classic Lowcountry architecture. As you enter the home, you are greeted by an open floor plan with warm hardwood flooring and scenic views. From the spacious living area, French doors lead out to the screened-in porch and patio, perfect for enjoying a relaxing afternoon or evening. These views are also visible from the private primary bedroom and the window lined flex room which makes a great den, office, media room or potential 4th bedroom. The kitchen offers an abundance of counterspace, quality cabinetry, and an island. Off the kitchen is an oversized utility room with elevator. The primary suite includes a double-sink vanity and a large enclosed shower. Two additional bedrooms share a bright bathroom with an oversized jetted tub and a charming white console sink. There is a great amount of space and storage throughout the garage in this thoughtfully designed elevated home. Also in this area is an enclosed workshop. Charleston National offers an elevated lifestyle with amenities designed for active living and relaxation: An 18-hole Rees Jones-designed championship golf course complete with a pro shop and driving range.
