Opportunities like this one do not come along often on Seabrook Island. Set along the fourth hole of the Crooked Oaks golf course, this property offers a rare chance to own a golf course property inside one of the Lowcountry's most private and treasured gated communities. The home is being sold as is, which makes it a wonderful fit for a buyer who wants to renovate and add value, or for someone ready to start fresh and build the custom island home they have always imagined. While the home is ready for a new chapter, the real value here is the location. Golf course properties on Seabrook Island are limited, and this one offers mature trees, a generous lot, and the peaceful feel that draws so many people to the island. With thoughtful updates, this home could become a comfortable full time residence, a relaxing second home, or a welcoming place for family and friends to gather. This property also presents an excellent tear down opportunity. Building new on Seabrook Island allows you to design a home around the way you want to live. Whether you see a renovation project with great potential or the perfect spot to build your dream home, this is a special opportunity on one of the most beautiful islands in the Lowcountry. Call today to schedule a private showing. Seabrook Island is a private, gated oceanfront community known for its natural beauty,
