Horse Farm Ready to make your own peaceful country retreat? With a little TLC and sweat equity, this property offers endless potential for enjoying the country lifestyle. Featuring beautiful pastures, plenty of room for animals, and space to make your vision a reality, this property is full of possibilities. A private driveway leads to a charming three-bedroom home featuring wood-look laminate flooring throughout and a screened front porch--an ideal spot to relax and enjoy the fresh country air. Equestrian enthusiasts will appreciate the two barns and outbuildings, thoughtfully set up with attention to detail. Approximately 4 acres of the property are fenced with American square box wire fencing, providing separate fields and space for your animals. The home also features a permanent brick foundation and is taxed as real property. If you're looking for a country property with room for horses, animals, and a little imagination, this could be the opportunity you've been waiting for!
